A declaration that the claim as presented by the Respondent is time-barred, as notice of the alleged accident was not given to the Applicant within the statutory period prescribed by the Workers Compensation Act. b. A declaration that the Labour Officer lacks jurisdiction to issue Mediation Directions over the Respondent's workers' compensation claim. c. A declaration that the Labour Officer lacks the power or jurisdiction to investigate, enforce, or impose criminal sanctions or penalties under the Workers Compensation Act. d. A declaration that the purported LD Form 31 relied upon by the Respondent is irregular, invalid, and lacks legal effect, for having been assessed by a Principal Assistant Nursing Officer and not a qualified medical practitioner as required by the Workers Compensation Act and the Medical and Dental Practitioners Act e. A declaration that the Respondent's claim is fatally defective for want of timely notice and lack of employer participation in the assessment process. f. An order dismissing the Respondent's claim for workers' compensation against the Applicant for being time-barred and without any justifiable basis for imposing any statutory liability against the Applicant. g. An order striking out the Respondent's claim for workers' compensation against the Applicant as being fatally defective as it was not assessed by a qualified medical practitioner. h. An order declaring that the impugned LD Form 31 cannot form a lawful basis for a compensation claim under the Workers' Compensation Act and is not binding upon the Applicant.
