Suspension of Advocate Irene Nyafwono Laker

The attention of the Judiciary has been drawn to social media reports indicating that Ms Irene Nyafwono Laker, an advocate who was recently suspended by the Law Council over professional misconduct is a Judicial Officer.

We wish to clarify that Ms Nyafwono has never been appointed a Judicial Officer but rather an enrolled Advocate subject to the disciplinary mechanisms of the Law Council and not the Judicial Service Commission.

As a result, her suspension resulted from the disciplinary proceedings of the Law Council.

Therefore, any reports associating Ms. Nyafwono with the Judiciary Service should be ignored!
