Lady Justice Nkonge has not clashed with any Advocate

The attention of the Judiciary has been drawn to a local online publication claiming that the Head of the Land Division, Hon. Lady Justice Alexandra Nkonge Rugadya clashed with Advocate Steven Kalali over a court file.

This is to categorically state that the publication is completely false. At no occasion has there been any altercation between the Judge and the Advocate as alleged by the article.

Both the Hon. Judge and Advocate are outraged by the malicious article which is a work of pure fiction of self-seekers. It should be disregarded and treated with utmost contempt.
